

Minutes East Naples Civic Association monthly meeting Wednesday February 7, 2007
Submitted by Ted Beisler, Secretary

-meeting called to order at 6:05 p.m. In attendance were: Tom Cannon, Jim Pusateri, Tony Zeman, Norm Reinertsen, Pat Sova, Jeff Macasevich, Neil Curley, Marci Seamples, Bob Murray, Jackie Wright and Ted Beisler. Guests; Kevin Rambosk, Jim Bloom and Donna Fiala.

-Our guests were in attendance to speak on a new initiative of the Sheriff's office and the ENCA regarding a partnership between the East Naples Homeowners Associations and the Sheriff's Department. The Sheriff will be assigning deputies to meet with the HOA's of East Naples on a regular basis to discuss how we can improve communications and make our Community a safe place to live and travel in. As our Community grows, violent crime, drugs and gang activity increase therefore there needs to be more awareness.

-The January 2007 minutes were approved.

-The President had no agenda for the meeting but Tom Cannon wanted to establish clear goals for the Association for the upcoming year.

-No newsletter and no luncheon for February.

-There was discussion on a venue for monthly luncheons. Ted will ask Foxfire.

-Tony Zeman submitted a budget for 2007. There was discussion and the Budget Committee decided they would come back with a different version of the Budget at the March meeting.

-The January Treasurer's report was approved.

-President Cannon recommended these Committees be formed; Special Events, Government, Public Relations, Business and Membership. Jim Pusateri and his Committee will have scope of work for discussion at the March meeting.

-A February luncheon on February 22 is possible with Donna Fiala as the speaker.

-We need ticket sellers for the Swamp Buggy on March 3 and 4.

-the Annual Banquet was a success. There were problems but they were overcome.

-we have 148 paid Members as of January 31.

-Queens Park lost their plea to the County regarding the drainage work being completed behind their homes.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:45 p.m.
